DISCIPLESHIP THOUGHT FROM WORDS

FOR WORSHIP. Jesus, in his prayer holds all aspects of life and faith and relationships within a vision of wholeness and connectedness: it's all union and communion. This is the purpose of our lives—to be at home within a world of relatedness, of intimacy, of participation. What begins in God as a community of love reaches out to include us and then continues to ripple outwards. Jesus' desire is for people to know and experience the love and relationship that is so core to his being. God's glory is located in this oneness. The implications of Jesus' prayer are profound. Jesus' prayer challenges our ideas of a private or a separate religion. The heartbeat of this prayer invites us to recognise God in each other and in ourselves. This requires that we recognise the inherent dignity and worth that our lives and relationships are bound up in. It means that we love God as we love our neighbours and vice versa. There is no separation. We are drawn into a world of relationships. This is what Jesus is praying for.

PRAYER REQUESTS AND QUESTIONS

If you have any questions you would like answered or a prayer request, please place them in the box at the side door. These can be anonymous.. For specific personal prayers, authorisation is required from the person involved.. Please remember in your prayers Janet Bruce, the family of Audrey Hollingworth who passed away recently, for Michele's mother Margaret, for Lance Jackson and for Maria undergoing treatment in Newcastle . For those suffering from the floods, those in war torn and earth quake areas of our world for those affected by cyclones, fires and other devastating situations... For the future of our church. For the Government and Council that the leadership will benefit our country and have the people's needs at heart. For the homeless and hungry, sick, lonely, grieving and those struggling with the cost of living. . Give thanks for prayers answered.

Lord please help me learn from my mistakes, but not dwell on them. Please help me not rest on my accomplishments but use them to further your work in and through me. Please help me not quarrel with those who injured . Instead, O Father, lead me in your path and help me see your mighty works.. I ask this in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.—Isaiah 43:18-19
