DISCIPLESHIP THOUGHT FROM WORDS

FOR WORSHIP. John 21:1-19 offers us a striking

image of Jesus cooking fish over a charcoal fire for his followers. Jesus is providing for them, caring for them. Is he creating space for something else as well, something important for Peter to revisit? The last time we hear about people gathering around a fire was in the high priest's courtyard (John 18:15-18). Peter, standing with others around a fire to keep warm, was asked if he was one of Jesus' followers. Peter would deny Jesus on three occasions. No resurrection could erase this wound for Peter. Peter, in the kind presence of Jesus, comes face to face with his shame. Jesus offers tenderness and empathy. He creates time and space just for Simon

Peter to speak to his heart, to encourage him, to restore and renew him. His three questions— 'Simon, son of John, do you truly love me?' —match Peter's three denials. Does Jesus call him by his old name because he knows he is speaking to someone who has reverted to their former self and former ways? Jesus is providing Peter with an opportunity to re-write his own history, to re-claim his identity and vocation. More than this, he builds on it— 'Feed my lambs', 'Take care of my sheep', 'Feed my sheep'— Peter is given great responsibility; how precious it is that Jesus reveals the truth of who we are becoming rather than dwelling on where we've been, our failures or even where we're at now.

QUESTIONS AND PRAYER REQUESTS

If you have any questions you would like answered or a prayer request, please place them in the box at the side door. These can be anonymous.. For specific personal prayers, authorisation is required from the person involved.. Please remember in your prayers Michele's mother Margaret who is in hospital. For the Federal Election that the government that is elected will have the leadership that will benefit our country. For the homeless and hungry, sick, lonely, grieving and those struggling with the cost of living. For those suffering from the floods, those in war torn and earth quake areas of our world for those affected by cyclones, fires and other devastating situations. For those travelling.. For the future of our church. Give thanks for prayers answered.
