DISCIPLESHIP THOUGHT FROM WORDS

FOR WORSHIP. Jesus speaks of the way that God will give another Advocate or Helper to be with us forever—the Spirit of truth who abides with us and will be in us (John 14:16-17). The Greek word for the Advocate or Helper is Paraclete. The word paraclete literally means 'the one who answers the call.' This is who the Holy Spirit is—the one who responds to us when we are weak or in need, like a mother or father who answers the cry of a child in the middle of the night, holding them and loving them. This is a way of saying that the Holy Spirit is always entirely for us, always drawing us into the loving embrace we need when we're struggling, always defending us when we're harassed, comforting us when we're distressed. Within us, there is the personal presence of God at work—God as Divine Parent, nurturing fragile life-to-be, present and at-hand, working deep inside our being, streaming courage and love deep into the places that need it most. Spirit hovering, brooding, waiting, attending. This is why Jesus can say confidently, 'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you.' (John 14:18),

PRAYER REQUESTS AND QUESTIONS

For those recovering from the floods, those in war torn and earth quake areas of our world for those affected by cyclones, fires and other devastating situations... For the future of our church. For the Government and Council that the leadership will benefit our country and have the people's needs at heart. For the homeless and hungry, sick, lonely, grieving and those struggling with the cost of living. . Give thanks for prayers answered.

"LET ME PRAY" Shared from the desk of Rev Sanghyeon Nam . Let me pray for myself first before praying for others. Before I shed tears for others, I shed tears for myself first. Let me be loved first before loving others. Only when the lake in my heart is calm can I float my boat, when the lamp in my heart is bright, I can set out on the road, I can feel the love of others when there is love in my heart. Let me know my shame before seeing the fault of others, let me blame myself before blaming others. Just like looking at myself in a mirror before standing in front of others, before I tell someone else, say it to myself first, if it hurts, let it be changed with gentle words. But through my prayers for me, do not let me become selfish or arrogant, may I always serve others with a humble heart and love in truth. AMEN.
