Discipleship Thought - The readings for this week invite us to listen to the wisdom at the heart of creation. The story of creation begins with belonging, and this thread of communion is woven throughout the readings. Humans emerge from the same earth that nourishes trees and flowers. Psalm 139 deepens this vision by reminding us that the God who knit us together in our mother's womb is also the God who knows every tree ring, every migrating bird, every seed beneath the soil waiting for spring. Paul insists that God is not distant from the material world but intimately present within it. Jesus invites Nicodemus into a new way of seeing. Perhaps being born again includes a renewed relationship with creation shaped less by extraction and more by kinship, less by fear and more by care.
